

Karl Reed's General Disclaimer and IP claim on policy submissions to governments, inquiries, committees
v.01 19/8/2022

Just to let you know that I love making submissions like these, however, I do regard them as my IP. I offer them to be used by the recipient as they see fit, however, I reserve the right to use them myself in my own personal campaigns on a wide variety of issues. Of course, I accept that should I do this, recipient may specifically criticise, reject or otherwise comment on any personal submissions I may make. I will (and always do) make clear that my own comments are representing no-one else, and are separate from any formal roles I may hold, as I always have done over almost 50 years.
